

BULK

COMMODITY HANDLING CONVENIENCE

DEDICATED DRY BULK BERTH

Dry bulk materials such as limestone and gravel have dedicated berth space and are poured onto 41 acres at JAXPORT's Dames Point Marine Terminal.

EXPANSIVE LIQUID BULK STORAGE

JAXPORT's Talleyrand Marine Terminal offers more than 324,000 barrels of capacity for cooking oil, corn syrup, molasses and other bulk liquids.

OUTSTANDING INTERMODAL CONNECTIONS

JAXPORT terminals are serviced by three interstates (I-10, I-95 and I-75), and the city has 36 daily train departures via three railroads: CSX, Norfolk Southern, and Florida East Coast Railway.

BALANCED IMPORTS/EXPORTS

The port's equal balance of imports and exports provides backhaul opportunities for importers, saving money and maximizing transportation costs.

IDEAL CONDITIONS

Northeast Florida enjoys a stable labor situation and temperate climate year-round.

GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

The port offers worldwide cargo service from more than 40 ocean carriers, including direct service with Europe, Africa, South America, the Caribbean and other key markets.

Port partners Westway, Martin Marietta, and CEMEX handle dry and liquid bulk cargo at JAXPORT.
